APPENDIX 1

‘ACCESS’ ARRANGEMENTS FOR EXTERNAL EXAMINATIONS POLICY (FORMS PART OF THE EXAMINATIONS POLICY)

1. INTRODUCTION

The School’s policy on “access” arrangements is based on the JCQ Document “Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Special Consideration”, which is published annually. Fundamental to this document is the principle that “Centres should request access arrangements which reflect the candidate’s normal way of working and for which there is evidence of need.”

2. ASSESSMENT OF NEED AND TIMESCALES

Following this principle the School will assess the needs of its students for access arrangements as and when the need arises. Provided these access arrangements, for example the use of a reader, a scribe or a word processor, are or become part of the student’s “normal way of working” the School will apply for such arrangements to be permitted during public examinations. Such applications will be made, at the latest, by the published dates as stated in the JCQ document, after which time no applications will be permitted, except those for temporary conditions or exceptional circumstances.

3. DEADLINES FOR REQUESTS FOR CONSIDERATION

To ensure that we are able to meet the correct deadlines in applying for access arrangements, parents should ensure that we have received any requests for consideration, as well as any relevant supporting evidence, by the following dates at the latest each academic year:

For November Examination Session:	15th September
For January Examination Session:	1st October
For June GCSE or IB Examination Session:	1st February
For June GCE Examination Session:	1st March

4. APPLICATION OF POLICIES RE SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Where students need special arrangements in order to access their external examinations, the following policies will be applied:

4.1 Where the reasons for applying for access arrangements relate to Special Educational Needs, a relevant and up-to-date report is always required. This may be written by a specialist teacher within the Support for Learning Department or by a private Educational Psychologist. In order to apply successfully for special arrangements, Felsted School needs to satisfy itself that the recommendations made are in accordance with the student’s ‘normal way of working’, as the examination boards will reject the request if we cannot verify that this is the case. Therefore, it should be noted that the existence of an Educational Psychologist’s report does not automatically mean that its recommendations will be followed, as there may be occasions when it will not be in the individual student’s best interests to work in a way to which he or she is unaccustomed. Where there is any doubt as to whether an Educational Psychologist’s recommendation is in a student’s best interests given their normal way of working, Felsted School will carry out its own additional assessments before applying for special arrangements and must reserve the right to overrule the recommendations made where the balance of evidence strongly suggests that it is appropriate to do so.

- 4.2 Where the reasons for applying for access arrangements are medical, a Doctor's report will always be required before the application for special arrangements can be submitted.
- 4.3 Where a separate venue and hence a separate invigilator is required, Felsted School will reserve the right to charge parents for the cost of employing an additional invigilator and hire of the venue
- 4.4. A student who is granted permission to word-process their examinations will do so in the Computer Centre (or in a separate venue if they have other exam dispensation needs), subject to the rules on the necessary distance between candidates being enforceable.
- 4.5 A student who is granted permission to read aloud must be accommodated in a separate venue. Granting this facility is at our discretion and depends on a suitable venue being available.
- 4.6 A student who is granted permission to have a reader or a scribe will usually be accommodated in a separate venue. If two or more students need an occasional reader simultaneously, they may be provided with a single reader in a single separate venue.
- 4.7 A student who needs a prompter will be accommodated in the main examination venue unless the student's specific educational needs make this impractical. One invigilator within the main venue will be assigned to prompt the student when required.
- 4.8 On occasion, the rules may prevent special arrangements such as those outlined in points 4-7 from being applied because they would affect the integrity of the assessment (eg Language orals and Listening examinations). It must be accepted that any special arrangements that are put in place will not apply on occasions when putting such arrangements in place would either adversely affect Felsted School's ability to carry out the examination under the correct conditions, or in practice act as more of a hindrance than a help to the student in question.
- 4.9 On occasion, a student may wish to ask for an agreed access facility to be withdrawn by mutual agreement.
- i) A student may state at the start of or during any examination that he or she is not going to use the facility for the remainder of the single examination. The assistant in question will check that the student is certain about this, and then leave.
  - ii) A student may request in advance in writing that the facility is removed from certain specified examinations in any given examination season.
In cases i) and ii), this will not affect arrangements agreed for other examinations, but once the facility is withdrawn from the specified examinations, it will not be possible to reinstate it for those examinations.
  - iii) A student may request in writing that the facility is removed from all of his or her examinations in any given examination season. In this situation, it will not be possible to reinstate the facility at a later date, unless the facility is reapplied for within the correct time limits.

EMPLOYMENT AND DEPLOYMENT OF EXAMINATION INVIGILATORS AT FELSTED POLICY (FORMS PART OF THE EXAMINATIONS POLICY)

1. CATEGORIES OF INVIGILATOR AND VENUES

For the purposes of this policy, examination invigilators are in three categories:

- A) Existing Felsted teaching staff or SfL assistants
- B) Other existing Felsted employees who have decided to take on invigilation as an additional duty
- C) Those employed solely as examination invigilators

For the purposes of this policy:

- The primary venue is the day's designated main examination venue, which will be directly supervised by the Examinations Officer, though he or she may not be present at all times.
- A secondary venue is a venue which may be in use for additional groups of students owing to specific and previously agreed learning needs (eg the use of word processor, scribe, reader etc), temporary or permanent medical conditions, insufficient room in the main venue, or the specific nature of the exam (eg an MFL oral or listening exam).

2. RECRUITMENT PROCEDURES

- 2.1 Safer Recruitment guidelines will be followed during face to face or telephone interviews for Category B or face to face interviews for Category C invigilation posts. This will include making the potential invigilator aware of mandatory checks that need to take place. Following the interview, an invigilator may be immediately invited to join our 'bank of available invigilators', subject to all subsequent checks being satisfactory.
- 2.2 As per the guidelines, we will apply for a DBS check for all those employed as examination invigilators at Felsted School, unless a DBS check is already in place for current staff. The paperwork for this together with all other mandatory employment checks will be processed and submitted as soon as possible after the decision to employ as an invigilator is verbally agreed.

3. ALLOCATION OF INVIGILATION DUTIES TO INVIGILATORS IN CATEGORY A

- 3.1 There are no automatic restrictions on the nature of the invigilation duties that may be allocated to invigilators in Category A. That said, there may be occasions when a student's specific learning needs or medical situation requires a specialist invigilator (eg when a student requires a scribe). In such situations, the best available person for the role in question will always be used.

4. ALLOCATION OF INVIGILATION DUTIES TO INVIGILATORS IN CATEGORIES B AND C

- 4.1 Invigilators in these categories will be asked to report on arrival to the primary venue, allowing their effective deployment by the Examinations Officer at the start of their shift.
- 4.2 As a preference, they will be allocated duties in the primary venue whenever possible, though the specific staffing needs on any given day may dictate that they are sometimes assigned for a period of time or even a whole shift to a secondary venue. Given the regular additional presence of the Examinations Officer, the invigilator may if necessary be the sole invigilator in the primary venue, subject to this meeting JCQ invigilation rules.

- 4.3 If being assigned to a secondary venue:
- i) They will always report to the primary venue at the start and end of their shift, and at any other time requested by the Examinations Officer, ensuring that they remain nominally under the supervision of the Examinations Officer at all times;
  - ii) If assigned to a venue where student(s) are in individual rooms, they may be given the duty of running that venue from a central location;

Additionally, if and only if Felsted School holds a satisfactory DBS check for the invigilator in question:

- iii) He or she may be deployed as the sole invigilator to a secondary venue where more than one student will be in the same room, subject to JCQ invigilation rules on sole invigilators.
- iv) He or she may be given the duty of supervising students with examination clashes in the Staff Common Room or other publically accessible venue.

5. USE OF INVIGILATORS WITH PENDING DBS CHECKS

Ideally, no invigilator would ever be used until such a time as we were in possession of a DBS check. However, the length of time that it sometimes takes for DBS checks to be returned may occasionally mean that it is unavoidable for invigilators to commence their duties whilst the DBS check has been applied for but is still pending. In such circumstances, in addition to the procedures noted in 3 and 4:

- 5.1 The invigilator will not be used as a sole invigilator in anywhere other than the main venue, where the examinations officer will be in and out of regular attendance, and will not be used as sole invigilator in the main venue for an exam involving only one student.
- 5.2 The invigilator will never be placed in a temporary one to one situation with a student during the course of any exam (eg if a student requests a trip to the toilet or is taken mildly unwell), and will instead be instructed to use the emergency mobile telephone to summon assistance if no-one currently DBS checked is present – with the exception of genuine medical emergencies when the need to act quickly may sensibly override what would in less urgent circumstances be normal good practice.
- 5.3 The invigilator should not wander freely around the school during their scheduled breaks, though may proceed directly to and from the LRH for refreshments and relaxation.

EXAMS CONTINGENCY POLICY (FORMS PART OF THE EXAMINATIONS POLICY)

Introduction

To highlight and avert possible disruption while ensuring consistency and effective response in the event of major disruption during the examination season such as widespread illness, travel disruption, bad weather or power failure.

Implementing the plan will safeguard the interest of candidates while maintaining the integrity of the examination system.

Contents

1. Contingency Planning
2. Long Term Absence of the Exams officer
3. National Incident
4. Disruption in the distribution of examination papers
5. Failure of IT systems
6. Assessment evidence is not available to be marked
7. School is unable to open as normal during the examination period
8. Candidates unable to take examinations because of disruption
9. Specific Bad Weather Contingency Plan
10. Disruption to the transportation of completed examination scripts
11. Centre unable to distribute results as normal

1. Contingency Planning

Schools should prepare plans for any disruption to examinations as part of their general emergency planning while ensuring that the relevant staff are familiar with these plans. This is the responsibility of the Headmaster, Leadership team and the Examinations Officer. If the Headmaster decides to close the School they will immediately inform the relevant awarding bodies to discuss alternative arrangements procedure.

It is the Headmaster's responsibility to ensure that parents/carers are kept informed of any decisions by issuing notifications on the School website and/or sending out text messages.

2. Long Term Absence of the Exams officer

The Headmaster and Leadership team are to ensure that trained, knowledgeable staff are available to keep the exams office running without incurring late fees and disadvantaging students.

If the need arises there should be a trained Exams Assistant to administer examinations in the absence of the Examinations Officer.

Where exams are already up-and-running and the majority of preparatory administrative work has been completed in advance a trained Exams Assistant could be put in place to administer examinations.

3. National Incident

The School will take advice from JCQ and the Awarding Bodies concerned and act accordingly, keeping Parents and candidates informed. Parents/Candidates should check the School website for up to date information and statements from the Headmaster.

4. Disruption in the distribution of examination papers

If there is a disruption to the distribution of examination papers to centres in advance of examinations the School will contact the awarding organisations who should be able to provide the School with electronic access to examination papers via a secure external network.

The Examinations Officer/Headmaster will ensure that all copies of exam papers received are stored under secure conditions at all times.

Alternatively, the awarding organisations can source alternative couriers for delivery of hardcopies of examination papers to the School.

5. Failure of IT systems

The Examinations Officer, in consultation with Senior staff, will make entries from another venue direct to the Awarding Bodies.

At all times during the system failure the Exams Officer will liaise with the Awarding Body to minimise disruption and costs incurred.

6. Assessment evidence is not available to be marked

Large scale damage to completed examination scripts/assessment before it can be marked.

Recommended Action - Awarding organisations to generate candidate marks for affected assessments based on other appropriate evidence of candidate's achievement as defined by the awarding organisations

7. School is unable to open as normal during the examination period

If possible, the School will remain open for examinations and examination candidates only. If the School is unable to open for examinations for any reason, the Examinations Officer will inform each awarding body where examinations are due to be taken as soon as is possible.

The responsibility for deciding whether it is safe for the School to open lies with the Head. The Head is responsible for taking advice, or following instructions from relevant awarding Examinations Bodies in deciding whether the School is able to open.

Alternatively, the School may use other venues in agreement with relevant awarding bodies (e.g. share facilities with other centres or use other public buildings, if possible). The Headmaster/Leadership team are to advise the Exams officer in good time of the full postal address of any alternative site which will affect the full cohort. This will enable the Exams officer to submit the information to all the relevant Awarding Bodies.

The School may be able to offer an opportunity to sit any examinations missed at the next available series. The School may also apply to awarding organisations for special consideration for candidates where they have met the minimum requirements.

8. Candidates unable to take examinations because of a disruption

If candidates are unable to attend School to take examinations as normal, the School will liaise with candidates to identify whether the examination can be sat at an alternative venue in agreement with the relevant awarding organisations.

Alternatively, the School can apply to awarding organisations for special consideration for candidates where they have met the minimum requirements.

9. Specific Bad Weather Contingency Plan

When possible, the School will remain open for examinations and examination candidates only. The Head would recruit a group of School staff who live on site or locally and can walk in on bad weather days in order to operate timetabled examinations. Staff will be contacted by email/text when necessary.

The school shall notify parents/carers of the situation by issuing notifications on the School website/text/email.

Where a pupil misses an exam because of bad weather the School will discuss their circumstances with the relevant awarding bodies. The action to be taken will aim to safeguard the interests of candidates whilst also maintaining the integrity of the exams.

10. Disruption to the transportation of completed examination scripts

In the first instance the school will seek instructions from awarding exam bodies and the normal collection agency on how completed exam material should be stored.

The school will ensure secure storage at all times of completed examination scripts until collection.

11. Centre Unable to Distribute Results as normal

Schools are unable to access or manage the distribution of results to candidates, or to facilitate post results services. Recommended actions - contact awarding organisations about alternative options and make arrangements to access its results at an alternative site.

4. Appeals against internally assessed marks (GCSE controlled assessments, GCE coursework, GCE and GCSE non-examination assessments)

Felsted School (“the School”) is committed to ensuring that whenever its staff mark candidates’ work this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the awarding body’s specification and subject-specific associated documents.

Candidates’ work will be marked by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skill, and who have been trained in this activity. Felsted School is committed to ensuring that work produced by candidates is authenticated in line with the requirements of the awarding body. Where a number of subject teachers are involved in marking candidates’ work, internal moderation and standardisation will ensure consistency of marking.

If a candidate believes that this may not have happened in relation to his/her work, he/she may make use of this appeals procedure.

N.B: an appeal may only be made against the assessment process and not against the mark to be submitted to the awarding body.

1. Appeals should be made as early as possible in order to ensure that the internal appeals process is completed prior to the submission of centre marks to the awarding body.
2. Appeals must be made in writing.
3. The Head of Centre will appoint a senior member of staff, e.g. an Assistant Head or a Deputy Head, to conduct the investigation. The senior member of staff will not have had any involvement in the internal assessment process for that subject.
4. The purpose of the appeal will be to decide whether the process used for internal assessment conformed to the awarding body’s specification and subject-specific associated documents.
5. The appellant will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal, including any relevant correspondence with the awarding body, and any changes made to internal assessment procedures.
6. The outcome of the appeal will be made known to the head of centre and will be logged as a complaint. A written record will be kept and made available to the awarding body upon request. Should the appeal bring any irregularity in procedures to light, the awarding body will be informed.

After candidates’ work has been internally assessed, it is moderated by the awarding body to ensure consistency in marking between centres. The moderation process may lead to mark changes. This process is outside the control of Felsted School and is not covered by this procedure.
